Coupons for Kerosene, Is New Ruling

Beginning November 1, the housing authority of Marin City will issue coupons to residents to obtain kerosene.

"This has become necessary because kerosene is a product made from crude oil, and oil must be conserved to fight the war. The housing authority has been directed by the Oil Conservation Board to cut consumption at Marin City at least 15 per cent. Any saving beyond that, of course, will be that much better for the war effort," said Merritt Webster, assistant executive director.

The housing authority believes the most practical and fair way to achieve this saving is to issue coupons for each family for each month, said Webster.

COUPONS AT OFFICE

The coupons will be available at the rental office for the month of November, beginning October 26. Residents may call for them thereafter at any time during regular office hours.

After careful study of amounts used by residents, the housing authority believes that the following monthly allotments are adequate: seven gallons for the two-room A apartments, 8 gallons for 2-bedroom houses, 9 gallons for 3-bedroom houses, and 10 gallons for 4-bedroom houses. These are the amounts of coupons which will be available each month, said Webster.

EXTRA AMOUNTS

"To take care of families which have temporary visitors living with them and find these amounts insufficient, residents may purchase additional coupons at the rental office at the rate of 12 cents per gallon. This is the actual cost to the housing authority. The purpose of this plan is not financial gain, but conservation of oil," he added.

The old plan of letting families get kerosene as they called for it at the station has led to abuse on the part of a few residents, Webster declared.

"Residents have been very cooperative on the plan to save diesel oil, used in the house space heaters," he reported.

"The report, so far this month, discloses only four families who have exceeded the amounts set," Webster concluded.

Another Press Club Frolic Set For October 15

The second Press Club frolic in Marin City will be next Sunday, October 15, to benefit the flight nurses' quarters at Hamilton Field.

These nurses are with the Army Transport Corps, flying wounded in from the South Pacific.

Red hot music is promised for the affair, which will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Admission is $1, or 75 cents for service men. Everyone is invited.

Pot-Luck Supper For All Sunday

The regular bi-monthly community pot luck supper is this Sunday, at 6 p.m. in the Community House, preceding the Marin City Council meeting.

Everyone in town is invited to come and bring a covered dish, salad or dessert.

Sign Up Now for Marin City's Next Blood Bank Day

Sign up all next week at the Rental Office from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. to give blood when the Red Cross Mobile Unit next comes to Marin City Friday, October 13.

The Community House desk will be manned by Red Cross staff assistants who will make your appointment for you.

The Mobile Unit brings Blood Bank Day to Marin City the second Friday of every month. Make an appointment and keep it!

How to Guard Fido From the Dogcatcher

To answer small boys' questions about how to get their pet dogs back when they are picked up by the county dogcatcher, The Marin Citizen this week interviewed the sheriff's department on the subject.

"To get your dog back," said a spokesman at the office, "if you see the catcher in time, and if you promise to keep your dog tied up, and if the catcher believes you, he may give you back your dog."

"Otherwise, within two days you can get the dog at the Humane Society in San Rafael, for the payment of a nominal fee," he said.

There is no place to get a dog license in Marin City, reports the sheriff's office. This is because Marin City is not incorporated.

The office points out that the dogcatcher operates here, not to take away people's pets, but to get tramp dogs off the streets.

Scout Leaders Needed Now In Marin City

Men to serve as Boy Scout leaders in Marin City are badly needed now, appeals Sam Partridge, county scout director.

Adults who have had experience in this capacity or who would like to learn to become scout leaders, should leave their names with Miss Ethel Johnson at the project services building 401, or call her at Sausalito 1180.

In order to get the fall scouting program under way, these volunteers are needed immediately, Partridge points out.

Pendleton and Post Broadcast

Langdon Post, regional director of public housing authority for Northern California, will interview Dr. Norman W. Pendleton over KSFO on Saturday evening, September 14, at 6:05 o'clock, on "World Organization for World Peace."

Dr. Pendleton will preach on the same subject at the First Congregational Church of San Francisco on Sunday evening, September 15th.

Management Warns Residents Of Coming Eviction Notices For Those Not Working In This Area

Marinship has carefully checked the Housing Authority's list of the families living here, and the yard will shortly expect the Housing Authority to move out all families who do not have at least one member working for an industry whose workers are certified as eligible to live in Marin City, this week announced Merritt Webster, assistant executive director.

Enrollment Up, Funds Down At Our School

Enrollment at the Marin City school reached the 1000 mark last Wednesday morning, top figure of registration since the school opened September, 1943.

Heariest centers of congestion are found in the third, fourth and eighth grades whose double sessions are signed up to 46, 47, and 51 children per class — which is over the 45 children per class figure set by the Federal Works Agency.

As the booming enrollment figures reached Superintendent Clifton Boyle's desk this week, they conflicted with a report just received from the State Department which informed Boyle that the department is recommending issuance of $3241 on the Sausalito School District's application for $17,055 to supplement the budget to make up the deficit at the Central and Marin City elementary schools.

This is a recommended decrease of $13,814 in the Federal funds which will help run these schools.

Mrs. Sterling Is Injured in Car Accident

Hubert Lee Wills of House 470 was cited for reckless driving last Monday when his car hit the Eddie Sterling automobile. Wills was driving up the north hill on the left side of the street.

The impact of the crash threw Mrs. Sterling, House 595, against the windshield hard enough to break a space the size of her head in the glass.

She was treated at the Medical Center where pieces of glass were removed from her forehead.

Considerable damage was done to the fenders and engines of both cars.

Neither driver had a driving license, reports the sheriff's office.

School Children Will See Movies By the Red Cross

A graphic portrayal of blood plasma in action will be given on the screen at the Community House next Wednesday, to children of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades and their mothers.

The movies will be shown in two sessions, 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

A speaker will demonstrate how the blood plasma kits are used.

There is no admission.

Sign up now at Building 401 for adult education classes in Marin City.

These certified industries at present are: Marinship, the Sausalito Shipyard, the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, Reeder Thum Manicini, Plant Rubber and Asbestos Company, National Joinery Company and L. G. Reeder Company. The only exception to this list will be a few instances in which an employed person in the family is vital to some necessary service in Marin City, or the wives of service men already living on the project, he said.

FEDERAL RULE

"This is a rule of the National Housing Agency of the Federal Government. To be admitted to live in Marin City one employed worker has always had to be certified as employed by one of these certified industries. The rule also requires that if workers change their employment so that no one in a family is employed by one of the certified industries that family will then have to find housing outside Marin City," Webster stated.

For many months this second part of the rule could not be carried out because OPA would not permit evictions to enforce it. That is no longer true and Marinship now faces additional difficulty in housing its workers because of its recruiting campaign. Therefore, the yard is now checking our list of families living here against its list of employees and we are going to have to enforce the rule much more actively, the assistant director added.

SEVEN INDUSTRIES

"The rule has a good deal of sense behind it. Marin City was built to provide housing for workers for the seven nearby industries listed above that are essential to the war. Generally speaking other industries that are critical to the war effort and whose workers could not find housing, have also had war housing built for them. By strictly adhering to the rule, transportation needs can be reduced.

"However, whether we agree with this rule is beside the point. It is a federal rule that the Housing Authority is required to enforce, Webster declared.

"So, we suggest that if the rule applies to you, that you start at once looking for some other place to live. We dislike to have to take drastic action," he said.

LEASE NECESSARY

"If you are one of those few families which has moved here without our knowledge and therefore are not on our list of families, we advise your appearing at the rental office immediately in order that your eligibility be straightened out. Unless you have signed a lease and the dwelling unit is rented in your name, you were not authorized to rent a dwelling unit in Marin City, Webster pointed out.

"No one is authorized to sublet a dwelling unit in Marin City. To move in here legally you have to apply at the rental office and be found eligible. The order in which the applicant moves in hinges on a number." (Continued on Page Two)

Hill Accident Causes Death Of Ice Driver

Richard Hubner died yesterday morning of injuries received last Monday when the ice truck he was driving crashed into a car driven by Mrs. Robert McIntyre of House 626.

The accident threw Hubner from the truck and caused compound fractures of both legs as well as internal injuries. After first aid, administered by Dr. Irving Johnson from the Medical Center here, he was taken to Ross Hospital, where death occurred.

Hubner was living with friends at apartment A29-232. Mrs. McIntyre suffered leg and arm bruises and shock.

The accident occurred when Mrs. McIntyre was driving her husband home from Stanford Hospital where he has had two operations during the last five months. McIntyre suffered mild shock but another hospitalization for him was not necessary. Their grandson, Jackie, escaped injury.

Force of the collision turned the ice truck completely over, and started it back down the hill. Paul Heger of A29-232, a passenger in the truck who was thrown free, leaped back into the vehicle and stopped it before it could jump the embankment and crash into houses below.

Teener Price New Football Coach in City

George Price, Marin City teenager and a junior at Tamalpais High School, joined the staff of the Recreation Department this week as football coach for the grammar school teams here.

Price will coach the teams Wednesday and Fridays from 3 to 5 p.m.

The first game will be next Monday at Tamalpais Park School with Mill Valley, at 3:30 p.m.

Marin City will have two teams—one over 100 pounds and one under 100 pounds.

Boys' Club Meets Here Saturday

The Boys' Club of the Marin City Community Church, which has 41 charter members, will meet Saturday night, October 7, from 7 to 9 at the club room, Building 400. The group is directed by Mrs. Dewey Sidles.

Reception Tonight

The open house reception for Marin City's teachers is being sponsored here tonight by the Parent-Teacher Association.

The affair will be at the school building at 7:30 p.m., with all parents invited to attend.

Dental Clinics For Women And Children

The monthly dental clinics, sponsored by the Marin County Public Health Department, will be next Tuesday, October 10, at Mill Valley from 9 a.m. to noon, and Thursday, October 12, at Sausalito from 9 a.m. to noon.

Eligible for the free care at these clinics are all Marin City kindergarten and pre-school children and pre-natal mothers. Appointments should be made by phoning Miss Verna Norton, public health nurse, at San Rafael 641.

Teeth are examined at the clinics and persons who are in need of a considerable amount of dental work are advised to go to a private dentist. Minor detail work is done during the clinic by the attending dentist, with no charge rendered for the services there.

Besides the Sausalito and Mill Valley clinics, there are two other centers open to residents here. They are at San Rafael Friday, October 13 from 9 a.m. to noon and Fairfax, October 12, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Another Peeper

A prowler was reported this week around apartment units A25 and A23. Residents state he was seen looking in the bedroom windows of their dwellings.

Last week a prowler was reported around units A15 and A16.

Center Staff Has First of Annual Dinner Parties

Nurses and doctors of the Medical Center held their first staff dinner party at the Music Box in San Francisco last Wednesday night.

The party of this initial annual affair included Mrs. Iona Bellak, Mrs. Enid Brubaker, Mrs. Frances Bodeen, Miss Beatrice Olson, Dr. Charlotte Baer, Dr. Elsa Bickel, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Johnson, Dr. J. W. Colbert, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Kollman.

Others were Austin Harper, Miss P. J. Sallee, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walenta, Lt. Elmer Swanson, Wm. Doucet, Major Allan Shappard, Capt. Jerry Rooney, and Lt. Benny Gouf-uncle.

'Law of Service,' Sermon Sunday

Dr. Norman Pendleton will preach the third in the series of sermons on "The Laws of Christian Living," under the sub-title of "The Christian Law of Service" on Sunday morning, at the Marin City Community Center.

The Sunday School meets in the Community Center at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Grass Fires

The Marin City Fire Department answered four county alarms for grass fires last week. The fires were at Waldo, Fort Cronkhite, Tennessee Valley road, and Alto.

There are approximately 400 families on the waiting list for housing in Marin City.

Fine Schedule Set, States Church Group

A very satisfactory schedule has been worked out by the various religious denominations who will share space in the new church building, announced the church committee after a public meeting here last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Walter Del Tredici, chairman, reported that a meeting with the housing authority management revealed that renovation of the building will be started within a month.

Rev. W. Hoedeman was appointed chairman of the decorating committee, with Mrs. W. C. Billingsley as a member.

The housing authority has offered the use of chairs for services, reports the group.

The pulpit will be donated by Rev. J. Williamson.

Liason Man

Councilman Jess Draper attended his first meeting with the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday noon. Draper was recently appointed liaison man between the Sausalito organization and the Marin City Council.

Kappa President

Miss Alice James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl James, last week took office as president of the Delta Sigma Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa Society, scholastic honor society of Marin Junior College.

Miss James is also serving as chairman of the junior college's candy booth at the Grape Festival this Saturday.

Warning to Non-Eligible Workers

(Continued from Page One) ber of considerations: how long since you applied, how desperate is your need for housing, how critically you are needed at the yard, how soon a dwelling unit for your sized-family is available. It is illegal to make a private arrangement with a family moving out unless you clear with the rental office and are permitted to sign a lease in your own name.

"Now that certified industries are going periodically to check our list of who lives here, this practice of moving in without authorization, will not get by undetected," he concluded.

Newsy Notes

Dues Must Be Paid. All teeners must have their dues paid up to be admitted to teener club, "399". This order will go into effect October 9, 1944. This is an important notice. Please heed.

Last Sunday, Konrad Knudson's football team played the Coca Cola Juniors in the city, winning by a margin of 13 to 7. They must be good!

FIESTA CONTEST CLOSES

By Lynn Draper
With the closing of the Fiesta contest, I would like to express thanks to all my friends for the help given me in the event, especially to the local drug store.

My personal congratulations to Audre Burbec, the queen, and her matron of honor, Sylvia Simpson of Larkspur. Dorothy Frederick and I tied for fourth place.

The thing which I thought was so significant was the fact that Marin City made such a good showing. Much better than we had expected, considering that this is a wartime community.

San Rafael's annual "Fiesta", that is the Grape Festival, will be held October 7th on the grounds of the Kent estate. There are to be many booths, attractions, etc., and all teeners and Marin City-sens are welcome.

TEENER DANCE HELD— Last Friday, the auditorium was the scene of a big shindig. The teener dance wasn't the usual Flatbush Stomp (er sump-in) but a REAL live band. Refreshments were available to those who had the dough, and most of them did.

Getting back to the band, which had four handsome boys, (wow, what a piano player, eh, girls?) consisted of piano, drums, trumpet and saxophone. Everyone seemed to have a good time and at midnight, most of the kids were disappointed at stopping.

The Little Birdie Says...

That Carol Husel should do homework at home, and paper work at meetings. Carol, please take note.

Oval Meyers is conscious of the little girl who lives in House 277.

That it's about time for Dennis Pecaut to settle down to one woman. Huh, Dennis?

We wonder if Ronald Meeks is aware of the girl who sits behind him in World History.

Al Fowler would like to announce the birth of quintuplets in his home. That's right, you guessed it. His cat, Blackie, had kittens.

It seems there's quite a business developing at the swap shop in Marin City. How's it coming, Arnold?

Konrad Knudson should come up to the club more often. His presence had a vitalizing effect upon Lynn Draper.

Our appreciation is given to the following who have contributed to this week's column: Carol Husel, Lila Flynn, Lynn Draper and Glen Bishop.

Help is needed to edit this column. If you are or would be interested, see Bob Greenwood at the Department Store.

Crazy Capers

A professor wrote, "Please wash" on the blackboard and the janitor took his bath before Saturday.

In the 17th Century, traveling was very romantic, as they had no roads, only bridal paths.

THE PARTS OF SPEECH
NOUN—What you call your girl. There are proper nouns and improper nouns. A proper noun is what you introduce her to your folks by. The common noun is "dear."

VERB—What freshmen try to write sentences without.

ADJECTIVE—A word of vigor and richness not used in polite society.

CONJUNCTION—What you stall around with when you don't know what to say.

PREPOSITION—Favorite word for ending a sentence with. (Poor grammar. Use a period instead.)

ADVERB—What you use to split an infinitive.

Council Highlights

The committee which was scheduled to report on the meeting with Mrs. Martha Roberts, reported that the Wednesday evening movies will be discontinued permanently and that the bill concerned would be taken care of.

The Teener Council appropriated $15 toward the Marin County teener dance, held in Marin City last Friday.

Council announces that elections will be held October 11, 12 and 13 at the dance. All teeners are urged to vote.

Hey, kids, why don't you come to the "399" club more often? After all, it's open for your convenience and enjoyment.

ARTICLE—Word of indefinite value, depending upon whether you're writing a telegram or a 1000-word theme.

Radio Broadcast Tells Relative's Story to Woman

While Mrs. M. G. Rolland of Marin City was listening to the radio this week, she heard the commentator of a news broadcast tell an human interest story about her cousin, Richard Butler of Des Moines, Iowa.

As related by the commentator, the soldier was in a fox-hole in New Guinea. When someone jumped in with him, he thought it was a buddy, and said, "Hey, be careful. Duck down here."

He stood up and there was a Jap with a knife ready to kill Butler. But another buddy was just a little faster on the trigger and he shot the Jap in the neck.

The Week at Your Marin County Theatres

Since most people believe that the post-war world will be a wondrous affair with new discoveries in science and transport revolutionizing our everyday living, it occurred to me some changes will be due in the motion picture industry.

I don't remember who said, "I don't care who makes our laws so long as I can make our pictures," but I hid me over to Darryl F. Zanuck, a producer on whom the genius tag is pretty firmly tied since he made "Wilson," and asked him what sort of film fare we are going to give our returned soldiers. I wanted to know what we could expect of the firm of the future. There was Zanuck pacing up and down his lush office like a caged tiger swinging a polo mallet to give greater emphasis—and he was ready to give. Here is what I got—

The over-all picture of the postwar cinema industry is a radical one. It has little in common with the industry we know today. Said Zanuck, "The post-war film will be international in scope. Picture-making in our peacetime era will be a far different thing than it is today. The broadening scope of world vision that comes with peace will bring about the ascension of a great foreign star. I would not be surprised to see a great Chinese actress become a dominant figure.

"I look to see our company, Twentieth Century-Fox, open a large studio in a foreign land—quite possibly India—where pictures will be aimed at world consumption although made basically for the East.

"I would have no hesitancy in making a motion picture with a love story between a typical American boy and a Chinese girl. The same is true of a picture with a high-type Indian and an American girl.

Films for Freedom

"The re-education of Germany will center largely around its film industry. Films were the instrument most freely used to propagandize the German people into Nazism. Films should therefore be the most powerful instrument used in their re-education.

"I would personally like to have the job of running the post-war German studios. I do not think this should be done by a government agency. I should be done by motion picture men. After all, we made our product so popular abroad that dictators banned our pictures in their countries."

Well, with that for a starter (and I maintain that's a good hunk for anyone to chew on) let's cut back to the psychology of today's soldier as outlined by Zanuck. He said "War makes men think. There are no drunken sprees from our returned soldiers today. These boys, transformed into men, have fought in 59 localities over every end and corner of the world. They're world-wide in vision. Geography isn't something they learned out of a book. They didn't have to find the far-flung places of the world on a map—they've been there. The motion picture industry will have to keep abreast of their way of thinking if we want to continue in business."

The Three Rs, Too

Servicemen, says Zanuck, have reflected a willingness to accept enlightenment along with their entertainment; and while the poll is high in favor of the pin-up type picture, many significant films rank with musicals in attendance. Back-grounds outside the United States will be characteristic of many of our new films and the foreign star will come back into favor.

"Our international casting average will mount higher and higher when the avenues of foreign talent, shut out by wars, are opened again. There should be no national boundaries in art. There aren't any in music, painting or sculpture. The talent of the world should and must be brought to our audiences.

"This will not come as any jolt to the people at home. We are building up a new audience here, too. They know new names—places they'd possibly never have heard of if their sons had not been fighting there. Many of them are buried there. They'll want to know more about St. Malo and Cassino and Chungking and Mitkima—those places are familiar household words now."

Truth Brought Back

Jinx Falkenburg, all dolled up in a sarong on the "Song of Tahiti" set, walked over to chat with a bunch of visiting marines just back from the South Pacific. Said Jinx, "Tell me—do you think I make an authentic South Sea Island girl?" After a brief hesitation, one of the marines spoke up and said: "Well, hardly, Miss Falkenburg. The trouble is, you are about 80 pounds underweight, you smell too nice, and you have far too many teeth!"

The first in a new series of War Department Educational manuals is entitled, "Do you want your wife to work after the war?"

Marinship's Move Next!

The housing situation in Marin County during the past few months has been getting worse. The lead story on the front page of The Citizen this week brings into the open this situation which affects the lives of so many who work at Marinship.

We certainly have no fault to find with the local housing authority. Generally speaking, they have done a good job through difficult times. Their latest announcement that no one can live in Marin City unless they work at Marinship or unless they are wives of soldiers who were drafted from here or are necessary to some phase of the life of the community, is a result of an order received from the National Housing Agency—the top war housing authority in the Nation. The local authority can only carry out that order.

It looks as if more than 100 residents here will be forced to move as a result of the order. Where they will find housing no one knows, nor does anyone seem to care.

More than a year ago housing was needed in Marin County. Since that time more workers have come to Marinship and the situation has become greatly aggravated. So much so, in fact that Marinship officials recently made a public plea for people of the county to rent their vacant rooms to incoming workers. That few had such rooms to rent was proven when tents were erected at the Marin City dormitories and mattresses were placed on the floor of the dormitory gymnasium to take care of those who could not find housing. Those tents and mattresses are still being used!

Why Marinship has not asked that more houses be built here in Marin City is a mystery to us. It seems to us to be the only logical and fast solution to a problem which has been a hindrance to a vital part of the war effort. The local housing authority is ready, willing and able to build these additional units. But first Marinship must ask for them—and that Marinship has not seen fit to do.

There is a waiting list of more than 300 who want to move into Marin City. There are other hundreds of Marinship workers who are living in substandard, overcrowded houses throughout the county. There are yet others who have moved in with people who already were living in Marin City. This has not helped either the health or morale of these workers whose jobs are so important to the winning of the war.

No matter how you look at this problem, it always jumps back into Marinship's lap. By a simple request to the Maritime Commission, which in turn would make a request to the National Housing Agency, Marinship could get enough additional units built at Marin City to take care of those who need housing.

VICTORY PARADE By COLLIER

By DAN ALLEN

Promises are an essential ingredient of a presidential campaign. They involve a discussion not only of what will be done in the future, but also of what has been done in the past. So let's look at the record and see what political power has done to the philosophy of government of the New Deal candidate.

Said Roosevelt: "Let us have the courage to stop borrowing to meet continuing deficits."—July 30, 1932.

"I accuse the present administration of being the greatest spending administration in all our history."—Sept. 29, 1932.

"We can look forward today to a continued reduction of deficits."—Jan. 6, 1936.

"The Treasury is all right and we are balancing the budget; you needn't worry."—Oct. 3, 1937.

The statements show what F. D. R. said regarding the spending of the tax payers' money during his 12 years in office. Yet about 75 billions of dollars were spent between 1933 when there were 12,000,000 unemployed, and 1939 when there were still 10,000,000.

Promises were made to labor, business and agriculture, which were broken each time some "expert" with a new idea appeared on the Washington scene. Back in 1931, Mr. Roosevelt said: "Let us not pursue the easy road of centralization of authority, lest we discover too late that our liberties have disappeared."

What happened? Mr. Roosevelt has usurped greater power than any other president, he has repeatedly attempted to deprive the States of their rights, Congress of its power, and the Supreme Court of its independence.

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE

By the way, Governor Dewey's next speech is Saturday night. Don't miss it.

Approximately $150 was made at last Sunday's Press Club Frolic to benefit The Marin Citizen.

By MICHAEL B. SMITH

When Republican Senator Ball from the Republican State of Minnesota publicly stated he did not at this time intend to come out in support of Dewey, he was praised by political observers as a man of conviction.

The fact is he did more than simply express a quality of political courage of the type that it not too often seen these days.

He actually hit the keynote upon which the outcome of the election is going to be decided.

The Senator stated he was reluctant to support Dewey because of the possible bad effect T.E.D.'s election might have on future international peace.

In the final analysis that is the basic issue involved in this campaign.

As this is written, all evidence points to the re-election of Roosevelt. When this comes to pass it will not be because the people feel that Tom Dewey lacks personal sincerity, nor will it be assumed that he is a hopeless reactionary—certainly not to the same extent most of the old guard G.O.P. rulers are reactionary. Neither should it be because T.E.D. is a rather funny looking little fellow with a trick mustache.

When Roosevelt is returned to office it will be because the majority of the American people do not want a repetition of the tragic mistake of 25 years ago. And one thing is certain—between F.D.R. and T.E.D. there can be but one choice for us to make if what we are really concerned about is the establishment of a lasting peace.

If the international machinery necessary to that end is to be created I can think of no greater mistake that we could make than to repudiate all that has been so far accomplished in that direction by F. D. R. in his work with the other leaders of the United Nations.

Twenty-five years ago when President Wilson was attempting to establish the kind of world apparatus through which the present war would have been avoided, the world was told that Wilson spoke for no one but himself. The Republican victory in the election of

Council Meeting Open to All at Regular Session

The Marin City Council meets this Sunday, October 8, at 8 p.m., in the lounge room of the Community Building.

All residents of Marin City are invited to attend. During The Good of Marin Hour, the meeting is thrown open to the audience when the people may instruct their councilmen on the town's affairs.

A Year Ago In Marin City

A fire in apartment unit A30 caused $350 worth of damage, and considerable irritation to the local fire department which was hampered in its work by the interference of bystanders. Two tires, stored in the washroom, contributed to the fire and smoke hazards.

A call went out from the school superintendent for volunteer workers for Ration Book 4.

The City Council collected $500 from the carnival which it sponsored here last year. The money went into the Community Fund.

Al Babcock was named Civilian Defense Coordinator in Marin City, an office which was disbanded here recently.

The sixth grade of the Marin City school led the entire building's classes with a War Bond and Stamp purchase record of 100 per cent.

The campaign last year to straighten out Marin City's tangled relations with the police force, started off in Mike's Column with: "If they were just ordinary citizens it wouldn't make so much difference. If they didn't carry guns and clubs and badges and the authority of policemen, we would just put them down as the sort of people we wouldn't care to be chummy with. But they are not just ordinary residents. They are the Marin City police force and the people here are just about fed up with them."

Marin City women, over 40 of them, were congratulated on the splendid work they did for last year's Grape Festival.

Merchandise was being moved into the drug and department stores, preparatory to their initial opening here.

Launching

Battle ensign from the heroic cruiser U. S. S. San Francisco, flew over the ways at Marinship last Sunday when the Navy oiler U. S. S. Anacostia was launched in the presence of distinguished naval officers and guests of the Sausalito shipyard.

1918 was offered as the proof.

European politicians believed it and the result was the Treaty of Versailles and the subsequent failure of the League of Nations, and another World War.

We must win the peace and Roosevelt happens to be the best equipped by experience and training that we could hire to help do that job.

This time we make it work or we "will break the heart of the human race."
